1 Corinthians - An INTRODUCTION

Background on Corinth:

- a major commercial center of Greece; regional Roman Capital of Greece
- its location determined that it would be prosperous (on Isthmus of Corinth) four mile stretch of land, alternative to treacherous journey around Southern tip of Greece. Small boats dragged on sledges. Was a wealthy boom town
- second only to Rome in terms of known info / reconstruction
- population heterogeneous (Romans, Greeks, Jews). Paul's audience predominantly Gentile Christians.

Paul was in Corinth after Jews had been expelled from Rome (49AD), probably 50-52AD, with the writing of this letter thereafter (53-54AD).

Corinthian Correspondence

1. 1 Cor. 5:9 The Stern Letter
 2. Our 1st Cor.
 3 Alluded to in 2 Cor. 1-2 The Letter of Much Tears

4. Our 2nd Cor. Second Corinthians

The Churches at Corinth

- Met in villas (homes) maximum of 40-50 people.
- If assumed were 4-5 house churches, would be talking about 200-250 believers in a city of 50,000.
- Indications of Jews in Corinthian churches 7:18, 9:8, 10 appears Paul assumed enough Jews in the church to interpret to Gentiles when he spoke of Jewish matters.

Influence of Pagan Religions

Asclepion god of physical and emotional healing

- well or sacred spring of healing
- - "health resort" place of rest and restoration
- library, garden, gym, baths, public dining
- if felt healed, made plaster cast of body parts for display -- lots of
- breasts and genitals.

Aphrodites goddess of love, beauty, fertility & sea farers.

- located on top of the Acro Corinth (1800 ft above city)
- patron goddess of prostitutes
- temple prostitution
- problem for Paul -- pagan religions made sex outside of marriage
- respectable as part of religious worship.

Hera Argapa goddess of marriage

- temple near marketplace -- agora
- generally where married woman went.
- Probably prayed for husbands to remain reasonably faithful.

Apollos / Oracle of Delphi 50km from Corinth

- a person would bring a question about life to the oracle. An interpreter would take the question to the oracle (always a woman). Ecstatic outbursts, etc. Interpreter then brought back message -- believed to be prophecy. The view of the Corinthians that: Prophecy = Ecstatic Speech + Interpretation may have influenced their view of tongues and prophecy in the church.

DISCUSSION - (what can we learn / observe together)

Context for Considering Issues:

- Scriptures Old Testament Only (NO New Testament collection of Letters yet)
- Letters Written by Apostles to Churches Addressed Questions, Concerns & Problems
- Cultural Issues (i.e., Over-emphasis of certain spiritual gifts, freedom / equality issues for women [hair / appearance / authority in the church], slaves [freedom / responsibility to earthly masters] and the less fortunate brothers and sisters [exclusion from Lord's Supper meal]). Lots of Dynamics and Cultural Norms to Deal with.

1 Corinthians Summary

Transforming "MERE" believers into MIRRORS of Christ / IMMITATORS of Paul

Brothers and sisters, I could not address you as people who live by the Spirit but as people who are still worldly —mere infants in Christ. I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready for it. Indeed, you are still not ready. ³ You are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere humans? ⁴ For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," are you not mere human beings? 1 Cor 3:1-4 NIV

Therefore I urge you to imitate me. Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ. 1 Cor 4:16, 11:1 NIV
